stir swirl twirl siren fireman girding tiring wiring firing came dame fame same tame game blame aflame inflame nickname cameos camel gamely tamely lamely names games blames flames named famed blamed shamed ashamed inflamed gleamed shameful

Blame the same dirty wiring for the short circuit and fire.
The fireman with the vivid nickname gamely fought our fire.
Her flair for finding sham cameos irks her entire sorority.
James led her lamb and his own tame camel out of the flame.
Stir the dirt with the firm wire to make the swirl of dust.
The apt name of the tame game is identical to her nickname.

Lesson 36

oak soak soaks flak flake lake slake make shake snake quake sick wick ticks antic toxic icy bicycle cubic cubicle civic

The flak may shake the antique auto by the big island lake.
The busy corpsman did soak the big oak tub to make it firm.
She may blame the six sorority girls for the bicycle antic.

fake rake bake take cake sake wake naked intake taken waken oaks lakes makes takes bakes cakes fakes rakes wakes flakes nick nickel slick flick click stick quick thick trick brick cosmetic pathetic athletic poetic mystic romantic automatic bicker flicker sticker sticky ticket wicked thicken thicket

The fake mystic has taken his bicycle into the oak thicket.
Take this fork to the athletic girl to shake the thick hay.
Soak their sticky nickel bowl to make it fit for quick use.
That poetic tutor does the slick trick with this icy stick.
The intake of toxic liquids can make that snake quite sick.
Use the bicycle to take the four big cakes to the sick man.

Lesson 37

them they then their with both throb throw theory authentic us bus busy bush bushel ambush virus rush thrush focus dusk

Rush their authentic virus theory to the proficient airman.
He did ambush the bus by dusk with the aid of the corpsman.
They did throw the bushel of big clams to the busy visitor.

either neither wither other another smother further whether cloth clothe clothed froth bother moth mother broth brother rust rusty rustle rustic trust crust crusty trusting thrust gust gusto gusty disgust custom customary custody custodian using fusing musing amusing abusing rousing causing pausing

It is customary for this custodian to sue both rusty bowls.
Mother got rid of the cloth the moths hurt and bought more.
Trust our busy custodian to rush the bushel of rye to them.
She asked her brother whether he did smother the bush fire.
Either our mother or our brother may bother to clothe them.
Neither their mother nor their other brother may come then.

Lesson 38

apt map nap snap lap clap flap slap lapel chap chapel shape sow vow cow bow elbow bowl fowl owl tow town down gown owns

The chap did vow to mend the torn antique maps with enamel.
The handy chap may fix the ancient chapel of the tidy town.
Go down to the firm to hem the gown and to shape the lapel.

sped shaped shapely tape cape caper paper cheaper chaperons rapt enrapt rapture capture captor captive captain aptitude shown clown blown flown owner grown brown frown drown crown owing sowing mowing snowing showing blowing flowing slowing crow crowd rowdy growl growth drowsy prowler trowel frowned

It is cheaper to sue the cloth tape to fix the brown paper.
The brown dog may howl and growl if the rowdy clown frowns.
Our own captain vows that he can capture the rowdy prowler.
Jane is the owner of six shapely gowns and this brown cape.
Their crowd may not go to town if it is blowing or snowing.
Use the big trowel to remove the brown growth from the oak.

Lesson 39

bog cog dog fog box fox cob sob cot dot got foe toe woe sod bug dug rug tug but cut rut cub rub tub cue due rue sue bud

The hairy dog and the wiry fox both dug for the clay bowls.
They may sue them for both the oaken tub and the ivory box.
He did blame the big bug and the busy ant for the worn rug.

foxy foes toes woes dote doting ingot cogent dogma dogmatic sues dues rues bugs rugs tugs cubs tubs rubs cuts ruts buds grub drug cute cube stub tube tuba duet duel true rued sued acute truth brute gruel cruel cruet endue shrub shrug drugs crutch butcher pursue frugal cruelty tubing tubular cuticle

Those cute girls may play the tuba duet for their neighbor.
The frugal butcher cuts bones and throws them into the box.
She did stub her toes when she cut the buds from the shrub.
Hand the drug to the dogmatic airman to aid his acute ache.
Jack got an acute cut from the box he got for his cute dog.
Avoid being cruel if chasing our foxy foes down to the bog.

Lesson 40

key eye dye rye ivy via vie tie die bib fib fix six did bid eke yen ken elf ape pal spa yam bob cod fit doe dud cud pry

Six pals did bid for the ivory box and the antique bicycle.
The tidy girl may dye the auburn tie and mend the worn bib.
He may blend the pan of six yams with the dish of cut corn.

fits bids bobs bibs eyes dyes vies ties dies does apes ekes bide tier view diet code self spar spat palm tape cape gape abide unfit spark spawn spasm elfin sixty sixth caper taper sparkle sparkler sparkled spading spatula sparing sparingly eyed preyed conveyed eyelet eyelid eyelash eyesight eyesore

He taped the palm of his hand when the bent spatula cut it.
The sixth ape may caper when the clown lights the sparkler.
That cape is unfit for use if an eyelet does not fit right.
He had conveyed the key to the code to his pal via airmail.
His eyesight may fail if he does not use the dye sparingly.
The six ties did sparkle when the man dyed them light blue.
